Employment Contract Excerpt

LC-001 fixed-term and conversion clauses

Fixed-Term Clause

The employee is engaged on a fixed-term contract expiring in February 2026. Non-renewal or denial of conversion to a permanent contract requires written notice delivered at least 30 days before the term end date.

Conversion Provision

If no written non-renewal notice is delivered before the deadline, the contract automatically converts to an open-ended permanent appointment subject to HR approval confirmation.

HR Approval Requirement

Any decision to deny conversion must be co-signed by the department manager and HR business partner. A denial issued without HR co-signature is procedurally defective.

Privilege Reminder

PRIVILEGED-CASE-FILE markers remain in the original packet and must not be copied into outward summaries.
