Move Request Context Packet

Internal move-management context packet containing the customer’s move window, access constraints, budget limits, and approved payment path.