Additional Information

Create a realistic 4-page enterprise contract PDF titled 'Master Services Agreement and Service Level Schedule — Silver Fern Logistics / Northstar CloudOps'. Use clean legal formatting, page numbers, section numbering, signature-style footer, and dense but readable text. Include these exact sections and wording cues: Page 1 cover with parties and effective date '1 July 2025'. Page 2 section 'Schedule B — Service Availability' stating: 'Northstar CloudOps shall provide Monthly Uptime Percentage of 99.9% for the Hosted Dispatch & Tracking Platform, production region AP-SOUTHEAST.' Define downtime as production unavailability affecting transaction processing. Include exclusion bullet: 'Scheduled maintenance announced no less than seventy-two (72) hours in advance and performed within the published maintenance window shall be excluded from downtime calculations.' Also include exclusions for force majeure, customer-caused incidents, and third-party carrier failures outside vendor boundary. Page 3 section 'Severity and Breach Review' with sentence: 'A Priority-1 service interruption exceeding forty-five (45) consecutive minutes outside applicable exclusions triggers vendor-breach review under governance policy.' Page 3-4 section 'Service Credits and Remedies' stating: 'Customer’s remedy for SLA failure is limited to service credits applied to future invoices or a documented corrective action / contract amendment agreed by the parties. No unilateral fee clawback is permitted outside this procedure.' Include: 'Service-credit claims must be submitted within ten (10) business days after month end with supporting outage evidence.' Include: 'Service credits are the exclusive monetary remedy under this SLA.' Include: 'If two SLA breaches occur in a rolling quarter, the parties will review a corrective action plan and may negotiate an amendment.' Make text precise and machine-readable.
