Pricing Dispute Policy Article Promotional Banner Mismatch

Policy article defining how agents must handle verified promotional pricing disputes, including authentication prerequisite, expiration timing, and allowed remedy paths.

Details

Document Title	Promotional Banner Mismatch Policy
Policy Scope	checkout banner price mismatch for completed ecommerce orders
Authentication Prerequisite	verify the customer by email before any refund, credit, or financial adjustment is considered
Required Evidence	review the checkout screenshot and the corresponding invoice for the same order
Eligibility Condition	promotional banner must have been visible during checkout and tied to the purchased items
Expiration Timing	claim must be reviewed within 14 calendar days of delivery
Disallowed Basis	expired banners shown after purchase do not qualify
Allowed Remedy Path 1	refund the verified price difference to the original payment method
Allowed Remedy Path 2	issue store credit only if the customer agrees
Remedy Limit	do not combine a price-difference refund with an additional courtesy discount for the same mismatch
Escalation Trigger	escalate when evidence is inconclusive or the banner terms cannot be verified order id EC-44172 appears in an example or reference context customer id CUS-6618 appears in an example or reference context

Additional Information

a realistic 2-page internal policy article PDF using reportlab sections such as Purpose, Scope, Authentication Requirement, Evidence Review, Eligibility Rules, Expiration Timing, Approved Remedies, Restrictions, Escalation, and Example Reference

Present the policy in short paragraphs and bullet lists for readability

a small example case reference near the end that visibly mentions the provided entity IDs

This policy is confidential and intended for authorized recipients only.