Additional Information

a realistic 1-page PDF excerpt of a notary journal or logbook entry labeled fields for date, time, signer, document type, identification method, address/location, witness information, fee, and notary credentials the page as an excerpt rather than a full bound book by cropping to one or two visible entries, with one primary completed entry dominating the page subtle visual cues of an official record, such as row lines, small administrative labels, a page number, and a compact office-document font
