Additional Information

a realistic 2-page enterprise contract PDF in English with some standard Chinese commercial phrasing

On page 1, include a clean typed pricing section showing a monthly recurring fee and service quantity details

Then visually add obvious handwritten-style annotations in dark blue or black ink near the pricing/scope area that revise the service scope and replace the monthly total, with strike-throughs or margin notes indicating approval-style edits realistic support obligations, uptime/service language, and standard legal boilerplate
