Jm-022 Protest Organizer Voice Transcript

Transcript of the protest organizer’s voice note describing the claim, needed for source-context verification and cross-source comparison.

Details

Transcript header references story id JM-022 and request id RQ-70233
Speaker is identified as 'Protest organizer, first name Maya, coalition media liaison'
Transcript says the organizer claims a student protester was 'yanked up while sitting' during the dispersal
Organizer states the student was not struck with a baton
Organizer says the student was later complaining of shoulder pain
Organizer claims there was 'at least one detention' but expresses uncertainty whether anyone was formally arrested
Organizer states the viral clip circulating online is cropped and does not include what happened immediately before the contact
Organizer says police had been giving dispersal warnings for several minutes
Organizer requests anonymity for the seated student’s name due to academic and immigration concerns
Transcript notes the organizer wants media to seek body-camera review and official comment before publication

Additional Information

speaker line: 'Speaker: Maya (protest organizer / coalition media liaison)'

Key lines state that a seated student was 'yanked up while sitting,' that the student was not hit with a baton, that the student later complained of shoulder pain, that there was at least one detention but the organizer is not sure whether anyone was formally arrested, that the viral clip online is cropped and misses what happened immediately before contact, that police had been issuing dispersal warnings for several minutes, and that the student’s identity be withheld due to academic and immigration concerns

a closing transcriber note indicating the organizer urged media to seek body-camera review and official police or university comment before publication

Make the PDF visually plain but highly legible and realistic

This statement is confidential and intended for authorized recipients only.