Handbook Page

Employee handbook PDF excerpt referenced as policy evidence for the recruiting complaint.

Details

Document Title	Employee Handbook
Section Heading	Equal Employment Opportunity and Anti-Discrimination
Subsection Heading	Recruiting and Interviewing policy states employment decisions must not be based on race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, or veteran status policy states recruiters and interviewers must use job-related, consistently applied evaluation criteria policy states interview questions must be limited to qualifications, experience, and ability to perform essential job functions policy prohibits asking candidates about marital status, pregnancy, childcare arrangements, religion, age, medical conditions, or other protected characteristics policy requires interview scheduling and candidate communications to be conducted in a professional and respectful manner policy instructs employees to report suspected discrimination or unfair recruiting practices to Human Resources, the Ethics Hotline, or a People Operations manager policy states retaliation against any person who raises a concern or participates in an investigation is prohibited
Footer Includes Page Number	42

Additional Information

a realistic 1-page PDF excerpt from an employee handbook using a clean corporate HR style

Format the content as handbook prose with short paragraphs and a bulleted list of interviewing rules language covering equal employment opportunity, prohibited interview topics, use of consistent job-related criteria, respectful scheduling and communications, reporting channels for concerns, and non-retaliation

This policy is confidential and intended for authorized recipients only.